ANSWER:

TEN LEPERS ARE HEALED  Luke 17:11-19

Use the words below to complete the story. They are in the right order, but the letters are jumbled.

One day, Jesus was making his way towards Jerusalem. On his journey, he crossed over the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten men, who were all lepers, called out to him. They kept their distance but raised their voices, shouting “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

Jesus looked at them and said, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.”

They went, and while they were still on their way, they were healed of their leprosy. One of them, when he realized that he was no longer suffering from the disease, came back to Jesus shouting ‘Praise God’. He fell on his knees, so grateful. He couldn’t thank him enough — and he was a Samaritan, an outsider.

Jesus said, “Ten lepers were healed. Where are the other nine? I thought they would have been as grateful as you are. It is good to say 'Thank you' to God.”

Then he said to him, “Get up. On your way. Your faith has healed and saved you.”
