1. Fill in the names of the tribes of Israel and colour the regions. This is the way the land was divided up when Joshua had led the people into the Promised Land.

2. Gideon lived in West Manasseh. Write 'Gideon lived here' and draw an arrow to the region.

3. Draw an arrow from Moab to Manasseh and write 'The Midianites attacked from here'

4. Draw an arrow to the tree symbol and write 'The angel of the Lord sat under this tree at Ophrah'.

THE NAMES OF THE TRIBES OF ISRAEL

The tribes were named after the sons of Jacob: Reuben, Simeon, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Benjamin. Joseph was not named as a tribe, but his sons Ephraim and Manasseh were given the status of full tribes by Jacob as he was dying, so in a sense he had double the inheritance. There wasn't a tribe of Levi because the Levites became the priests and were scattered throughout Israel.
